Benefits of MACA Affiliate Membership

With nearly 90 members, MACA is one of ACA International's larger regional units. Our footprint includes the states of Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia -- representing firms that include many of the purchasers of the products and services your company provides. For the stated annual dues, your firm can become an Affiliate Member to this well-established organization.

Some of the benefits your company will receive include:

- An opportunity to enroll in unit meetings, which are likewise attended by Principals/Decision Makers from many of our member companies
 - Your company listing on the MACA web page as a MACA Affiliate Member with your a dedicated "About" page that includes your contact information for your company and logo hyperlinked to your company web site.
 - Ability to obtain a mailing list of member firm contacts.
 - Networking opportunities with our members -- those same firms that utilize your products and services.
- * Logo placement in each MACA eBlast sent to Members throughout the year. Your logo will be hyperlinked back to your company page.

We urge you to take advantage of this exclusive invitation to be considered a preferred supplier to nearly 100 businesses located in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, and the District of Columbia that could directly impact your sales.
